CHAPTER 1

WHAT SPIRITUAL POWER REALLY MEANS

Spiritual power is not noise. It is not pride. It is not shouting. It is the ability to align your mind, body, spirit, words, actions, and natural elements so that your life begins to respond to your intention.

A true master of spiritual power has:

1. Clean spirit
2. Strong mind
3. Protected aura
4. Disciplined tongue
5. Respect for herbs and nature
6. Control over fear
7. Ability to pray with focus
8. Ability to use water, fire, earth, air, and herbs correctly
9. Patience to wait for signs
10. Wisdom to help people without destroying lives

Spiritual power becomes dangerous when a person is angry, proud, greedy, jealous, or impatient. That is why every serious spiritual student must begin with cleansing.

CHAPTER 2

THE 12 LAWS OF SPIRITUAL POWER

1. The Law Of Cleanliness

A dirty spirit cannot carry clean power. Before any serious work, cleanse yourself.

2. The Law Of Intention

Every ritual must have one clear purpose. Do not mix too many requests at once.

3. The Law Of Speech

Words are spiritual seeds. What you repeat with belief becomes energy.

4. The Law Of Timing

Dawn is for blessing and new beginnings.

Midday is for strength and visibility.

Evening is for peace and settlement.

Midnight is for deep spiritual work and revelation.

5. The Law Of Offering

Offering means respect. It can be water, prayer, fruits, grains, incense, or charity.

6. The Law Of Exchange

Power requires sacrifice: discipline, prayer, fasting, learning, patience, or service.

7. The Law Of Protection

Never open yourself spiritually without protection.

8. The Law Of Nature

Water cleanses.

Fire activates.

Earth stabilises.

Air carries words.

Herbs connect physical and spiritual healing.

9. The Law Of Repetition

One-day work gives small results. Repeated work builds power.

10. The Law Of Secrecy

Do not expose every spiritual work you do.

11. The Law Of Character

Bad character destroys spiritual authority.

12. The Law Of Service

The highest power is the power to help others.
